Chicken Palace celebrates

The Chicken Palace Restaurant will hold a first-anniversary celebration this Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

The restaurant, located on Route 460 in the town of Appomattox, will feature old-fashioned prices on a variety of items.

Doug Barksdale, owner of the restaurant, says the special prices are his way of "thanking the people of Appomattox" for their business during the past year.

Barksdale, a Charlotte County native currently living at Thomas Terrace, notes that his business has steadily improved since he opened the restaurant on April 18, 1981.

An expanded menu, as well as a variety of homemade items such as baked beans, soup, cole slaw and chili, have contributed to the continued success of the business, Barksdale believes.

Barksdale said this week that he owes much gratitude to his employees. Three of them -- Betty Watkins of Appomattox, Sandra Paris of Evergreen, and Barry Watkins, a senior at ACHS -- have been with the restaurant since its opening. Tammy Cumbie, Carolyn Franklin, and Nancy Doss have also played an important part in the development of the business, according to Barksdale.

"I am looking forward this Saturday to saying 'thanks' personally to the people of Appomattox who have made the business a success," Barksdale concludes.

AMS news

The Math-a-thon being held at the Appomattox Middle School has drawn to a successful conclusion according to Mrs. Jeffree Wilkerson, co-ordinator for the activity.

"Although we originally had a total of 214 students to sign up as participants, only 73 were able to locate sponsors and gather contributions. Those students were able to raise over $1800. Imagine the contributions we could have raised had all 214 students who signed up been able to participate," she said.

Students in Mrs. Wilkerson's classes collected the largest amount in contributions, raising $823.01. Mr. Tom Forest's students were close behind with $585.62. Miss Brenda Hamlette's students raised $196.46 and Mrs. Francis Goin's students turned in $185.29. Mrs. Denise King had two students to participate, raising $46.48.

All proceeds go to support medical research of chronic and terminal diseases in children at St. Jude's Children's Research Center and Hospital in Memphis, Tenn.

If you missed the PTA meeting on Monday night, you missed a real treat. So, don't let PTA Activity night pass you by. Make plans to be on the football field at AMS on Friday night, May 7, 1982 from 5:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. You'll love it!

A good evening of entertainment can once again be enjoyed at the Appomattox County High School auditorium. The Mouse That Roared, the spring production of the Drama Club, will be presented this Friday and Saturday night.

Well it finally happened, the senior class at ACHS went on a senior trip! Saturday morning at 7 a.m. three school buses left ACHS and headed toward Kings Dominion in Richmond, Virginia. A trip to Pennsylvania had been tentatively planned and cancelled due to high costs and lack of interest. Instead of going to Pennsylvania the seniors voted to go to Kings Dominon, and have the senior banquet at Holiday Inn in Lynchburg.

Pattern library is set up

Due to shaping up in Appomattox many of us ladies have patterns which no longer fit. In an effort to economize we with the help of the County Extension Service and the assistance of Mrs. Margaret Glover of our County Library have set up what we call our pattern library.

The way this pattern library works is you, the homemaker, bring your patterns to the Extension Office, where they are categorized by size, and then taken to the library where you can check them out to use as you would a book to read.

Thus far things have really been going well. We appreciate your sharing of patterns with us as I am sure you've enjoyed borrowing them. We ask your help to enlarge our selection by telling others. If there are any questions, please don't hesitate to call me. A fellow struggling housewife trying to make ends meet.-Teresa Perrow (352-5370).
